

SYLVER LOGAN SHARP

BIO

The passion of SYLVER LOGAN SHARP, R & B, Soul, Pop, Dance international recording artist and entrepreneur, has captured the attention of fans around the world. As lead singer of the legendary group, CHIC, since 1990, she has performed for crowds of thousands in concert halls, festivals, and venues all over the US, Europe, Japan and the UK.

Most recently, SYLVER enjoyed rave reviews on stage at "Night of the Proms" with the orchestra, Il Novocento, in Antwerp, Belgium. Her CHIC discography includes: CHIC-ism, CHIC, Le Freak and More Treats, CHIC, the Definitive Groove and the DVDs, CHIC, Live at The Budokan, CHIC, Live at Montreux and CHIC, Live in Amsterdam, and Carlos Santana's Hymns for Peace.

In 2005, SYLVER's captivating vocals topped the dance music charts with her #1 Billboard Hit, ALL THIS TIME with DJ Jonathan Peters. She wowed "standing room only aficionados" in dance clubs all over the east coast. Thanks to KNHC in Seattle, KNGY in San Francisco and WKTU in New York, this amazing hit still reports at the top of radio request lines.

SYLVER's long awaited solo CD, PLACE TO BEGIN, released January 2009, is gaining radio airplay on Washington, DC's WHUR and touching hearts in her live performances. Co-written and produced with impresario, Daryl L. A. Hunt, this soulful love-driven CD is available now on www.cdbaby.com and www.itunes.com.

SYLVER's voice and namesake jewelry line, SYLVERWEAR, keep her in the company of who's who in the music and arts world.
